LEAD SUPERVISOR TRAINING PROCESS

Contractor or Landlord contacts MaineHousing's Energy & Housing Services Department by calling 207-624-5727 or emailing EHShousing@mainehousing.org. MaineHousing will provide general information, including insurance requirements.* Contact Sandy Moody for details on Lead Supervisor Certification and lead abatement contractor licensing process: sandy.j.moody@maine.gov or 207-287-7751. INTERESTED IINTERESTED If not interested in pursuing certification and If interested in taking Lead Supervisor training, licensure, Landlords can: Email MaineHousing at EHShousing@mainehousing.org to obtain a Apply for assistance from MaineHousing Training Request Form. Lead Programs. Once form is completed and returned to MaineHousing, a commitment to reimburse is provided to candidates who meet the A Licensed Lead Abatement Contractor will be provided to assist with lead remediation requirements outlined below. and/or abatement. Candidate successfully completes training and passes exam. Candidate works with the Maine DEP to become a Certified Lead Supervisor ($125 annual fee) and Licensed Lead Abatement Contractor ($275 annual fee). Licensed Lead Abatement Contractors are added to the Maine DEP licensed contractor list. CONTRACTOR LANDLORD Contact Landlords must submit copy EHShousing@mainehousing.org of contractor license and for information on submitting a invoice for course fee to MaineHousing Contractor MaineHousing for Application to be placed on reimbursement. MaineHousing's approved contractor list.

Contractor bids on

MaineHousing lead project and once first lead job is completed, submit invoice for course fee to MaineHousing for reimbursement.

Landlords who become licensed and do lead abatement work on their own properties are not eligible for reimbursement from MaineHousing Lead

Programs.

Landlords are not eligible to bid on work for their own properties