

- MaineHousing's Moderate Rehabilitation (Mod Rehab) Program provides project-based rental assistance for low income families.
- Mod Rehab Assistance is different from a Voucher, because the assistance goes with the building.
- This means you can have rental assistance while you are living in the Mod Rehab building but you will lose your rental assistance if you move from the Mod Rehab building.
- When vacancies occur in Mod Rehab projects, MaineHousing refers eligible families for participation in the Mod Rehab program from its waiting list to owner.
- Owners select families for occupancy of a particular unit after screening each family.

Applicants may request a "reasonable accommodation" if they or any other family member has a disability when such an accommodation is necessary to afford persons with disabilities an equal opportunity to use and enjoy their housing. Language assistance and other appropriate communication auxiliary aids and services are available upon request. Please contact MaineHousing if you have questions about your rights to accommodation.

Note: Federal regulations prohibit rental assistance to persons other than United States citizens, nationals, or certain categories of eligible non-U.S. citizens. Families with some eligible family members may be entitled to prorated housing assistance.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
